WHO WE ARE?

- To help young dancers grow through performance experience, artistic exchange, and constructive feedback;
- To help dancers stay motivated, inspired, and continue developing their skills at their dance school;
- To support participating schools and academies by offering visibility and promotional opportunities through our event and media platforms;
- To create a vibrant international community that connects dancers, teachers, and audiences through shared passion and creativity;

6. EVALUATION CRITERIA

6.1 The "Golden Bee" competition uses a qualitative and NON-competitive evaluation principle. Each performance is evaluated individually according to four criteria:

Criterion	Maximum number of points	Description
Technique	10 points	Execution cleanliness, style-specific characteristics, rhythm, coordination, synchronization with music.
Artistry	10 points	Expression of feelings and emotions, musicality
Choreography	10 points	Complexity and originality of the choreography, dramaturgy, movements and figures, placement and lines.
Overall impression	10 points	Age-appropriateness, music choice, artistic image, interpretation quality, movement quality, creativity, originality, stage presence.

6.2 Evaluation criteria for the Classical repertoire variation:

Criterion	Maximum number of points	Description
Technique	10 points	Precision of execution (turnout, alignment, balance, placement, footwork); clarity in jumps, turns, and extensions; control, strength, and clean transitions.
Artistry	10 points	Expressiveness and interpretation of the role; emotional connection to the music; style, phrasing, and ability to convey character.
Stage Presence & Musicality	10 points	How the dancer carries themselves on stage, confidence, projection, performance energy, and use of space. Rhythm, phrasing, timing of entrances/exits, and coordination with music.
Overall impression	10 points	Age-appropriateness, music choice, artistic image, interpretation quality. Costume, grooming, adherence to style, and how all elements combine to form a strong performance.

6.3 A participant can receive a maximum of 40 points from a jury member.

6.4 Rankings are determined solely by the total number of points scored, regardless of the number of participants in a category.

Each performance is awarded a diploma indicating its placement (1st, 2nd, 3rd, or 4th place) according to its score.

This means that multiple dancers in the same category may receive the same placement, and every participant receives a placement based on their own score — not in comparison to others.

1st place (115 – 120 in total)

2nd place (108 – 114 n total)

3rd place (96 – 107 in total)

4th place (less than 96 in total)
