INTERNATIONAL DANCE FESTIVAL - COMPETITION

"Golden Bee"

www.golden-bee.ch

2nd of April 2023, Geneva, Switzerland

People associated with dance know firsthand how much work and effort it takes to achieve the desired result. The choreographer and the dancer are the real toilers of bees.

To get 1 kilogram of honey the bees fly around 2-4 million flowers and 400 thousand kilometers. Once the bees have collected valuable nectar, they transform it into honey. In the same way, the choreographer, having collected all the elements of the composition and staging of the dance, as a result receives their choreography - their creation - their "honey".

Like small bees our participants flock from all over the world to this beautiful and cozy beehive called Geneva.

The International Dance Festival-Competition "Golden Bee" invites everyone to participate and get the deserved awards.

Your work will be appreciated!

7. JURY

The contest is judged by a professional jury of choreographers, artists and masters of sports, whose decision is binding and not subject to revision. The jury consists of an odd number of judges in order to avoid an equal number of votes. Before the competition with the members of the jury is briefing, in order to organize the coordinated work as judges. The decisions of the jury are final.

8. JUDGING CRITERIA

The Golden Bee competition is judged on a qualifying basis, NOT on a competitive basis.

Each performance is evaluated according to three criteria:

- Performance (technique).
- Artistry (expression of feelings and emotions, the disclosure of the artistic image).
- Compositional construction of the choreography (dramaturgy, choice of music, lexis, figures).

The following criteria will also be considered: originality, stage costume, choice of artistic image, repertoire compliance with the age features of the performers.

The maximum score for one criterion is 10 points.

A participant can receive a maximum of 30 points from one member of the jury.

Places are distributed according to the number of points earned. Thus, there may be several winners in one nomination and age category.

The results of the online competition will be available on our website on April 21, 2023.
